* No points required. The head of club will determine the required activities.

** The head of the club will verify that the student meets or exceeds the requirements and shall enter the information on the form. Their signature will verify the requirements have been met.

To recommend for promotion the head of the club must be an active USJA member, have earned a Judo rank one rank or more above the person being recommended and have the required certifications. If that is not possible, they may request the aid of a CRE or contact the promotion board for assistance.
